

The FRAME Routine

Key Topic

Benefits of CER's is about...

how Content Enhancement Routines help teachers to communicate what is critical to students so student understanding increases

Main idea

Provide a Scaffold

Main idea

Facilitate Higher Order Thinking

Main idea

Teach Emerging Strategies

Essential details

Organizes ideas w/ a graphic organizer clarifies information to be learned explores relationships

Essential details

Supports convergent and divergent thinking

Matches type of thinking with type and amount of content

Essential details

Provides explicit instruction on approaching content

Moves students to independence

So What? (What's important to understand about this?)

When students can "picture" and explain how to approach content, they are more likely to succeed at meeting expectations