The Content Enhancement Series

2021

The University of Kansas

Center for Research on Learning

Lawrence, Kansas

Content Enhancement

---

A way of teaching an academically diverse group of students in which:

- Both group and individual needs are valued and met;
- The integrity of the content is maintained;

Content Enhancement

A way of teaching an academically diverse group of students in which:

- Critical features of the content are selected and transformed in a manner that promotes student learning; and
- Instruction is carried out in a partnership with students.

Content Enhancement Routines

Characteristics Of A Good Assignment According To Students

---

- Is different from other assignments
- Has an understood purpose
- Has clear/well-organized directions
- Allows for interpersonal/social interactions
- Is personally relevant for students
- Provides opportunities for creative expression

Characteristics Of A Good Assignment According To Students

---

- Allows for feedback
- Lists available resources
- Meets criteria for optimal challenge
- Includes student choices
- Is considerate in relation to time demands
- Lists evaluation criteria

The Purpose Of The Routine

---

- To improve the quality of assignments given to students.
- To increase the assignment completion rate by students.
- To improve the quality of work on assignments completed by students.

When To Begin Using The Routine

---

- Any time throughout the school year
- Best introduced at the beginning of the year or semester

Steps in the Quality Assignment Routine

---

- Prepare the Assignment
- Prepare the Students
- Present the Assignment
- Evaluate the Assignment

Get Ready!

Prepare the Assignment

- Construct a plan.
- Create a visual device.

---

Construct A Plan

Get Ready!

Plan Two Types of Assignments

- Big, one-time assignments.
- The first in a series of assignments.

Get Ready!

---

Collect the needed planning tools.

- Textbook, notes, reference materials
- Quality Assignment Planning Worksheet
- Quality Assignment Planning Chart
- Assignment Ideas Sheet

Use the Planning Worksheet to construct a high-quality assignment.

Plan for the presentation.

The Planning Worksheet

---

- Plan the purpose of the assignment.
- Link the assignment to student needs and interests.
- Arrange clear student directions.
- Note evaluation date and results.

- Determine knowledge or skills students should be able to demonstrate by completing assignment.
- Determine how students will demonstrate skills or knowledge. Use “Assignment Ideas” Sheet.
- State how the knowledge and/or skills acquired will benefit students.

Link The Assignment To Student Needs And Interests

- Consider variations to prevent student boredom/frustration. Consider varying:
  - Format
  - Organization
  - Content
  - Resources
  - Purpose
  - Location
  - Social interaction
- Consider pitfalls to successful completion.
- Offer solutions to possible pitfalls.

Link The Assignment To Student Needs And Interests

Link assignment to student needs & interests (HALO)

1. How can the assignment be made personally relevant for students?

Choose 1 aspect of Greek life that interests you (e.g., sports, art, politics, religion)

2. Options/Choices?

With partner or by self;
Diary or audio tape;
Athens/Sparta

3. Pitfalls to successful completion of work?

1. Diary format
2. Find/use tape recorders

4. Solutions to these pitfalls?

1. Show sample diary
2. Tell where to get/how to use tape recorders

Types Of Students

Involve Students In Planning An Assignment

---

- Explain the purpose of the worksheet: to plan a high-quality assignment.
- State expectations for everyone to participate.
- Briefly describe the unit on which the assignment is to be based.

- Give each student a copy of the Assignment Planning Worksheet. Explain assignment purpose.
- Give students a copy of the Assignment Ideas Chart. Ask students to use this information to create an interesting assignment that will accomplish the assignment purpose.

- Discuss possible directions, options, grading criteria, supplies, and due date. Help students complete the “L” and “A” sections of the worksheet.
- If a team is planning the assignment, determine who will present the assignment to the entire class.

---

- After assignment has been completed, involve students in evaluating the assignment outcomes and whether future changes should be made.

Quality Assignment Planning Chart

Plan the purpose of the assignment

1. Answer the question, "What will students accomplish" by determining the knowledge or skills students should be able to demonstrate by completing the assignment.
2. Answer the question, "How will they do this?" by determining how students will demonstrate their knowledge. To do this, select a verb and an assignment idea from the "Assignment Ideas" Sheet.
3. Answer the question, "Why is this important?" by stating how the knowledge and/or skills they acquire by completing the assignment will be of benefit in the future.

Link assignment to student needs & interests

1. To make the assignment personally relevant for students, consider the physical, intellectual, social, emotional, and cultural characteristics and interests of students.
Consider offering assignments based on:
  - current events
  - heroes/heroines
  - social interaction
  - cultural values
  - community involvement
  - TV
  - fantasy
  - futurism
2. Consider ways to produce a final product without boring or frustrating students.
Consider variations according to:
  - Format (match modality strengths-oral, written demonstration, etc.)
  - Organization (lists, diagrams, outlines)
  - Content (topics, task selection)
  - Purpose (practice, prepare, extend, create)
  - Location (library, home, study hall)
  - Social interaction (partner, small group)
  - Resources (books, film strips, etc.)
3. Consider pitfalls that might prevent successful completion of the assignment. For example:
  - Confusing vocabulary words
  - Unavailability of equipment
  - Unfamiliarity with equipment
  - Lack of particular academic skill
  - Low access to resources
  - Low motivation
4. Offer solutions to such problems.

Arrange clear student directions

To arrange clear student directions, jot down information that is complete and easy to follow. This includes:

Action Steps: The task broken into its component parts.	Grading Criteria The way grades will be determined.
Supplies/Resources The human and material resources ( text books, dictionaries, magazines, computers, people ) needed to complete the work.	Due Date(s) The day on which the work is to be handed in; shows time consideration.
	Points The total points assignment is worth.

Note evaluation date & results

Specify a date for reviewing the appropriateness and outcomes of the assignment:

Assignment Review Date Note the date when the assignment results will be ready and an assignment discussion can be conducted.	Results: Record necessary changes in the assignment to ensure better performance the next time it is used or the course is taught.

The Assignment Window

- Is a graphic device that:
  - Is prepared ahead of time by the teacher.
  - Allows the teacher and students to record important information related to an upcoming assignment.
  - Is presented to the class through a co-construction process.
  - Is used to promote student understanding of how to complete an upcoming assignment.

ASSIGNMENT HANDOUT

World History

March 12, 1997

Assignment:

Journal on Ancient Greece

Date due:

March 18

Points:

100 points (1/10 of unit grade)

Purpose:

So we can analyze why such a highly developed civilization fell apart, and prevent the same thing from happening to our own civilization.

Directions:

Choose some aspect of Greek culture that interests you (e.g., sports, politics, art, drama, music, domestic life). Focusing on that interest, create a journal that describes that aspect of life for someone who lived in Ancient Greece and had that same interest. Show one good thing and one bad about that aspect of culture.

Options:

1. You may do this assignment either by yourself or with a partner.
2. Journal may be either a written diary or an audiotape.
3. Choose whether the person you're writing for lived in Athens or Sparta.

Grading Criteria:

1. Journal must have at least seven entries. Each entry must have a date. Entries need not be consecutive (e.g., doesn't have to be March 1, 2, 3; can be Mar. 1, April 2, May 10).
2. Each entry must include at least three statements or sentences.
3. The journal should focus on one good and one bad thing about the interest you have chosen.

Supplies/Resources:

Class notes, textbooks, library books, magazine articles, movies, and imaginations.

Model Assignment Window

Course & Assignment: English: Vocabulary Sentences

Date Given: 5/4

Date Due:

Directions: Define five vocab words. P. 67. Write meaningful sentence for each.

Options: Choose which five vocabulary words

Grading Criteria: 1. Spell vocab words correctly; 2. Underline each vocab word

Supplies/Resources: Text, glossary

Goal: To get an A

How To Teach PACE (Lesson 1)

- Give an advance organizer.
- Discuss examples & nonexamples of “quality” work.
- Introduce & explain the “basic” PACE Requirements (“P,” “A,” “C,” & “E”).
- Explain the “additional” PACE Requirements (the numbers “1” & “2”).

How To Teach PACE (Lesson 1)

- Model how to check assignments with the PACE Requirements.
- Summarize and state expectations for students to use the PACE Requirements to check all future assignments.

Checking Assignments With PACE

- Write “PACE 1, 2...” on your assignment.
- Draw two small lines under each letter and number.
- Write key words for additional requirement next to each number.
- Think about the meaning of each letter and number. Place a checkmark under/next to each item if you think you fulfilled it.

The REACT Strategy

For students to use during the assignment presentation

- Review the directions.
- Evaluate whether the directions are complete.
- Ask questions.
- Create a plan to complete the assignment.
- Target some goals.

How To Teach REACT (Lesson 2)

---

- Review the PACE lesson; preview new lesson.
- Introduce and explain each step of the REACT Strategy.
- Explain and model how to record the directions of an assignment.
- Model each step of REACT.
- Conduct verbal practice on the REACT Steps.

- Give an actual assignment as students record it and use the REACT Strategy.
- Review the REACT Strategy. Prompt students to use it from now on.
- Conclude the lesson with a reminder to use PACE on the finished assignment.
- On the following day, review assignment.

Present the Assignment

Optional Plans For The Presentation

- Use the Planning Worksheet as notes to complete an Assignment Window on an overhead transparency as students record the assignment in their notebooks.
- Construct a draft of the Assignment Window ahead of time. Add to or clarify information with students as they record the information into their notebooks.

Optional Plans For The Presentation

- For complex examples, create a handout with all important information. (Examples on p. 54 of manual.)
- Estimate the amount of time you will need to present the assignment by using the Cue and Do (ASSIGN) in the Cue-Do-Review sequence.
- Add at least 5 or 10 minutes for students to get started on the assignment.

Present the Assignment

---

- Cue
  - State that an assignment is about to be given.
  - Prompt students to record the assignment in their notebooks.
  - Specify expectations.

---

- Do
  - Announce the assignment and its purpose
  - State clear instructions.
  - Stop for students to “REACT.”
  - Investigate student understanding.
  - Give start-up time and offer help.
  - Note expectations.

Evaluate the Assignment

The “RATE” Evaluation Steps

Rate finished assignments with “PACE.”

Analyze student error patterns.

Talk about student responses on the assignment.

Extend offers

- that students can submit corrected work
- that you will provide help to anyone who wants it

Summary Of How To Use The Components Of The Routine

---

- Plan an assignment using the Quality Assignment Planning Worksheet.
- Consider how to present the assignment to students.
- Teach the PACE Requirements.
- Teach the REACT Strategy.
- Present the assignment. (Cue-Do)

---

- Evaluate the students' completed assignments.
(Review)
- Plan, present, and evaluate other assignments.
- Involve students in the planning of future assignments.

The Cue-Do-Review Sequence

- Cue
  - State that an assignment is about to be given.
  - Prompt students to record the assignment in their notebooks.
  - Specify expectations.

The Cue-Do-Review Sequence

- that you will provide help to anyone who wants it

Two Big Wins!

- Students learn more when they're sure they:
  - are doing authentic work as they are learning,
  - gain personal satisfaction from their learning, and
  - see that their learning is reflected in the grades they receive.
- Teachers win because
  - improved learning for students is professionally and personally rewarding.

Student Comments About The Routine

- “I thought it was fun because we could make more assignments that were better for us and more fun.”
- “I’ve learned to check my paper. Now I do better. I think about it now, and I’ve noticed a change in my grades.”

Student Comments About The Routine

---

- “I take more time on my assignments and try to put more effort into them.”
- “The thing I liked was we had input on the assignments.”
- “It sure makes you more willing to learn if you can learn what you want to learn and think it is important.”

Beware Of These Pitfalls

---

- “Students don’ t need time to REACT.”
- “Assignments don’ t have to be prepared outside of class.”
- “If I don’ t get it right the first time, I won’ t ever get it right.”
- “Students will automatically see the advantages of using an assignment notebook.”

Student Comments On What Teachers Should Do When Giving Assignments

---

- Offer challenge & choices
- Consider amount of work/time
- Offer help
- Give clear directions
- Offer variety
- Promote understanding
- Provide feedback
- Provide opportunities to redo work
- Demonstrate enthusiasm
