

Reflective Writing for your e-Portfolio

Questions to consider...

Writing a reflection or statement of purpose for your artifacts can be difficult. Review some of the questions below to help formulate a thoughtful response.

1. Why have I chosen this artifact/example in my ePortfolio?
2. What are its strengths? weaknesses?
3. Why is it important to include this piece in my ePortfolio?
4. How and where does this fit in with my prior knowledge?
5. How do you think that others will react to this artifact?
6. How do I really feel about this?
7. What process did you use to complete the artifact?
8. What did you learn by doing this assignment?
9. How did you grow or develop?
10. Of what are you most proud?
11. How does the eportfolio artifact illustrate the connection(s) you've made between yourself and the course material?
12. In what ways would you do things differently if you could do it over again?
13. What did you discover about yourself?
14. How does it relate to your future? Your career?
15. How does it illustrate your strengths and/or weaknesses?
16. How does the portfolio product indicate changes in your worldview and/or awareness of global issues?
17. What obstacles and challenges did you have to deal with, and how did this struggle change you?
18. How does the portfolio product show that your perspective on the world has deepened?
19. How does it relate to your understanding of the world around you?
20. How does it show that you are ready to enter the next step of your life?
21. This artifact was my greatest challenge because?
22. What did you learn about yourself when you compiled the information/artifact?
23. Which of your accomplishments makes you feel most proud?
24. What would you do differently if you did it again?
25. I will remember this piece twenty years from now because...
26. This piece may surprise people because...
27. On a scale of 1-10, I give it a ____ because...