International SIM Conference
July 10-12, 2013 • Lawrence, Kan.

BIG EVENTS IN 2013

The year 2013 will mark some important benchmarks at the KUCRL. Important to the network is that the year marks the 35th anniversary of the Center. The Center, which now encompasses eight divisions, continues to study problems in education and work to place solutions that make a difference into the hands of educators, learners, employers, and policy makers.

A second important event for 2013 is that Don Deshler, director and co-founder of the Center, will begin phasing into retirement from the university. The university has begun a search for a new director. Don will be a mentor for the new director in 2014 and ease us all into the Center's next 35 years.

Given these special events, we thought you might like to begin making plans to attend the 2013 International SIM Conference. The registration form is on pages 5 and 6.

Thirty-five years—35!

In 1978, Grease and Animal House were on the big screen. Dallas (the original version) and the Muppet Show entertained TV viewers. The Bee Gees owned the Billboard top hits with "Night Fever," "Stayin' Alive," and "How Deep is Your Love" all in the Top 10 for the year. Kobe Bryant was born.

And nearest and dearest to our hearts, a small group of education researchers at the University of Kansas won the grant that established the Institute for Research in Learning Disabilities, which grew into our beloved Center for Research on Learning.

The 2013 International SIM Conference (July 10-12) will celebrate our achievements as a Center and as a SIM Network during the past 35 years. We'll also look forward to our goals and challenges for the next 35.

KEYNOTE

One sure highlight of the conference will be the keynote address by Elaine Allensworth, interim executive director of the University of Chicago Consortium on Chicago School Research.

Allensworth is well known for her research on issues related to education policy, especially her studies of high school graduation and college readiness. She also has published work related to school leadership and school organization and is one of the authors of Organizing Schools for Improvement: Lessons from Chicago. Her research on early indicators of high school graduation, including the study "What Matters for Staying On-Track and Graduating," has been used to create student tracking systems used in Chicago and districts across the country.

Her keynote, School Practices that Matter Most for High School and College Readiness, will address her work conducted at CCSR. Allensworth's research has been focused on education policy and always anchored in student success. She will share lessons from studies she has conducted in high school curriculum, the transition to high school, and non-cognitive factors (academic behaviors, perseverance, mindsets, learning strategies, and social skills) all leading to college readiness.

CONFERENCE SCHEDULE

Though we have celebrated past anniversaries by moving the conference to Kansas City, we are keeping the 2013 conference in Lawrence, where it all began. We're excited by the opportunities this decision offers, but it also means space is limited. Please register early to secure your place at the conference.

It would not be a proper anniversary without a banquet. The 35th anniversary banquet celebrating the longevity of the Center will be Wednesday evening. The gathering will also provide a formal opportunity to wish Don well in his retirement.

In addition to the special anniversary events, the most significant change to the schedule this year is the elimination of preconference workshops. Low attendance in recent years led to our decision to take a break from preconference offerings. We may reconsider for future conferences, depending on feedback we receive from participants.

As for the meaty part of the conference schedule, the part where we learn from and re-energize each other, we are still working out details, but here is what we know so far:
- The conference will begin Wednesday, July 10, with a welcome and keynote address, followed by breakout sessions and then lunch on your own.
- The popular strand format returns on Wednesday and on Thursday, July 11. Strands are extended sessions, designed to allow you enough time for in-depth learning centered on a single topic. Topics under consideration are routine instructional behaviors; learning strategies and the Common Core State Standards; content enhancement and the Common Core State Standards; and effective professional development practices.

- The conference will wrap up with a general session led by Don Deshler on Friday, July 12. Don will lead an interactive session on research, work in schools, SIM, and the future. Watch Stratenotes and SIMTRAINER-L for more information, including suggested articles to read ahead of the conference so you get the most out of this session. You won't want to miss this!
- The conference will end at noon Friday.

This schedule is subject to change. We'll keep you apprised as plans come together.

THE NEXT 35

Some traditions associate coral, the 35th anniversary gemstone, with friendship, diplomacy, optimism, and creativity. These same qualities distinguish members of the SIM Network. The friendships we have made among members of the network and with educators with whom we work have profoundly influenced our work over more than three decades. We treasure each one.

Diplomacy has been a hallmark of our work. Indeed, it has been vital to our success with schools, teachers, and administrators, especially those who are reluctant to change their practices or adopt new methods.

Our work is built on optimism—optimism that our work will result in a better education and a better life for students who struggle, especially those with disabilities.

Each one of us draws on creativity every day as we seek solutions to the educational challenges faced by teachers, students, parents, schools, districts, and communities.

As a SIM community, we are well-equipped to build on our achievements of the last 35 years as we continue the very important work we began in 1978 of helping the students who need us most.

EPILOGUE

So 35 years later: Dallas has been reincarnated on the small screen. The Bee Gees hits are stayin' alive on oldies stations. Kobe Bryant is an NBA champion.

And the Center is ready, with your help, to make the next 35 years just as successful and wonderful as our first 35 years together.

Anniversary Banquet

The 35th Anniversary Banquet will be held Wednesday evening, beginning at 6:30, in the ballroom of the Kansas Union on the University of Kansas campus. The dinner buffet will consist of your choice of two salads, three entrees, three side dishes, and dessert. Coffee, tea, and water will be served.

Update Options

If you need to attend a SIM Update Conference in 2013 but can't make it to the international conference in July, check out the following list of regional and state options. Full details and registration information are available on our website, http://www.kucrl.org/classes.

2012/2013 Virtual Conference

If you are unable to attend the 2013 International SIM Conference in Lawrence, registration is open for the last 2012/2013 virtual conference, which will be April 23-May 13, 2013, with concluding webinars on May 15 and May 16.

Content for the 2012/2013 virtual conference is drawn from sessions presented during the 2012 International SIM Conference, which celebrated the spectrum of connections that have made the Strategic Instruction Model™ an enduring fixture on the education landscape. The conference featured two keynote speakers:

- Ed Ellis, professor of special education and multiple abilities at the University of Alabama, focused on instructional practices and 10 indicators of a successful education in his keynote address, Beyond Test Scores—Indices of a Successful Education.
- Jim Knight, director of the Kansas Coaching Project at KUCRL, explored the benefits of and the practices that promote professional learning in Learning Adults for Learning Students.

WHAT IS THE SIM VIRTUAL CONFERENCE?

The virtual conference is a way for you to receive credit for attending a SIM update without traveling to the international conference in Lawrence or one of the regional update conferences planned around the country. It does not replace face-to-face conferences, however. You may attend one virtual conference every four years, and you must attend at least one face-to-face conference between virtual conferences.

WHO MAY ATTEND A SIM VIRTUAL CONFERENCE?

The virtual conference is open only to SIM Professional Developers who have attended at least one face-to-face conference in the past. In addition, if you attended last year's virtual conference, you must attend another face-to-face conference before registering for a second virtual conference.

HOW WILL THE SIM VIRTUAL CONFERENCE WORK?

You will register for the virtual conference just as you would for a face-to-face conference. We will send you a package of conference sessions on DVDs; links to additional online content, including handouts from the 2012 International SIM Conference; and instructions for completing the virtual conference.

You will be expected to watch each DVD, complete activities associated with each session, and reflect on how you can use the information in your work. You must complete an online evaluation for both keynotes, both strands, and four of the five sessions you select before you receive credit for attending an update. You also must participate in one of the concluding webinars (May 15 or May 16).

DOES THIS FULFILL THE REQUIREMENT TO ATTEND AN UPDATE EVERY TWO YEARS TO REMAIN AN ACTIVE MEMBER OF THE INTERNATIONAL PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT NETWORK?

Yes, the SIM virtual conference fulfills your update requirement. Remember, to be considered active in the SIM Network, you must attend an update every two years and maintain a current Strateworks membership.

CAN I STOP ATTENDING FACE-TO-FACE CONFERENCES AND JUST COMPLETE MY UPDATES VIRTUALLY?

No. You may attend a virtual conference in lieu of a face-to-face conference every four years. In the interim, you must attend at least one face-to-face conference to maintain your active status within the network. In addition, you must have attended at least one face-to-face conference in the past before you can register for your first virtual conference.

HOW MUCH DOES THE VIRTUAL CONFERENCE COST?

The cost is $400. You will not have the travel and lodging costs associated with attending a face-to-face conference.

REGISTRATION DEADLINE

The registration deadline for the spring virtual conference is April 15, 2013. Materials will be mailed to participants the week of April 15, and you will be expected to complete all activities and evaluations for your conference sessions by May 13 to receive credit for attending an update. You also must participate in one of the concluding webinars on May 15 or May 16.

Space is limited. Register early.

See registration form on pages 7-8.

Call for Proposals
International SIM Conference
July 10-12, 2013
Oread Hotel • Lawrence, Kan.

We are soliciting proposals for two types of presentations for the 2013 International SIM Conference: Book Reports and Posters. The deadline for proposal submission is March 15, 2013. Submit your proposal by emailing Mona Tipton at monatipton@ku.edu.

Electronic handouts will be required of all presenters. Handouts will be posted online for our participants to download in advance.

Selected presenters will be notified by April 2, 2013. By submitting a proposal, presenters are providing consent for themselves and all other presenters on the proposal to be videotaped. Your submission of a proposal constitutes a commitment by all individuals participating in the presentation to register for the conference if the proposal is accepted. Registration must be received by July 1, 2013.

Types of Proposals
10-Minute Book Reports: Presenters will report on books selected by the Center and relevant to SIM professional development work. Presenters will have 10 minutes to present key points and whet the audience's appetite to read the book. Each presenter will create a bookmark handout summarizing key points using a template provided by KUCRL.

Poster Session: This session will showcase research or innovation in SIM. Proposals should include the title of the poster and a short abstract (up to 75 words) for use in the program book and on the conference website. In addition, if applicable, include a short description of the evidence of any results. If you want to use a KUCRL trifold board or if you will require an electrical outlet, please include that request in your proposal. Participants who want to use a laptop must provide their own laptop.

QUESTIONS? If you have any questions about any part of this call for proposals, please contact Mona Tipton, monatipton@ku.edu.

MY DAY OF SERVICE

In Honor of Don Deshler's Decades of Service

When we learned that Don planned to phase into retirement at the end of this year, we began casting about for a meaningful way to show our appreciation for the good he has done throughout his career on behalf of students with learning disabilities and their teachers, families, and communities. We thought, what better way to honor a man who has spent his life serving others than to participate in a day of service in his honor?

The idea is simple: Choose any day between now and June 3 to do something nice for someone. Your options are unlimited, but here are some ideas to get you thinking:

- Volunteer for a local literacy-related organization
- Purchase books for a library or community center
- Spend an afternoon reading to or playing with kids
- Help an elderly neighbor complete lawn or home maintenance chores
- Plant a tree or bush

After you have completed your day of service, send us a brief description of what you did, including the number of hours you devoted to the project, if applicable. We'll compile stories and statistics and present them to Don during the 2013 International SIM Conference.

We hope many of you will join us in My Day of Service in Honor of Don Deshler's Decades of Service.

In addition (or if volunteering isn't an option), we invite you to contribute to our collection of "What I learned from Don Deshler" stories. You can use the form below and on page 10 to report on your volunteer efforts and to share what you've learned from Don. You also can write a personal note to Don. We will assemble completed forms in a permanent book to be presented to Don during the conference. Send your completed form (by mail or email) to us by June 3 to be included in the book.
