SIM in the Field

Thirty-five Years on the Road from Research to Practice: Where Have We Been, and What Did We Learn on the Trip?¹³

Drs. Jean Schumaker and Joe Fisher

Two recent articles (Fisher & Schumaker, 2021a; Schumaker & Fisher, 2021b) review most of the research that has been conducted on four Content Enhancement Routines: The Concept Mastery Routine, Concept Anchoring Routine, Concept Comparison Routine, and Question Exploration Routine. Since at least two research articles have been accepted for publication for each routine, we felt that this was an important milestone because the articles tell a relevant story.
